AllClear Insurance acquires InsureandGo

Synova portfolio company, AllClear, the UK's leading specialist travel insurance broker for customers with pre-existing medical conditions, has acquired InsureandGo, one of the most recognised names in the travel insurance sector.

The acquisition of InsureandGo, which doubles the size of the Group, will broaden and diversify AllClear's customer base, whilst allowing InsureandGo's customers to benefit from AllClear's market-leading customer service, technology and expertise in managing risk for medical and health conditions – issues that will become even more important for travellers in the post-Covid travel market.

Chris Rolland, Chief Executive Officer of AllClear Group, said: “We are delighted to welcome InsureandGo into our family of brands – it is a business we have admired for many years. The opportunity to accelerate the growth of InsureandGo, with the backing, resources and expertise of AllClear, is both clear and compelling. Our brands will share learning and leverage expertise to further enhance the services the Group provides to its valued customer base as the market starts to build again.”

David Menton, Managing Partner at Synova and Director of AllClear added: “The combination of AllClear and InsureandGo creates a new powerhouse in the specialist travel insurance market by bringing together two highly respected brands as well as two exceptional teams. We are delighted to have supported Chris Rolland in delivering this important acquisition.”
